DAVIS HOME IS BURGLARIZED.

During their absence of a week during the holidays, the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Davis, about a mile west of Tombstone, was entered and robbed of a number of valuables, the robbery being discovered late this afternoon when they returned to their country home. Sheriff J. E. Hood went out to investigate on receipt of word from Mr. Davis, who advised him that a quantity of jewelry, including diamonds, silverware and clothing had been taken, a complete examination not having been made. How entry to the building was effected was not learned at the sheriff's office up until the time the sheriff went down to investigate.

TOURIST THIEVES.

It is well for our townspeople to be on the lookout for thieves traveling by auto. All our neighboring towns report petty thievery and we have just had one robbery here. The safe way is to let these auto tourists of the suspicious character strictly alone—just keep them moving. The kind that are looking for something around your yard, store or shop and in a place where he has no business is apt to be making ready to "swipe" something.
